

ARIANA SALAH

EMAIL: ariana.salah@gmail.com CELL: (408) 568-0427
San Jose, California

OBJECTIVE

Energetic professional who has excellent interpersonal skills interactions with leaders and youths, strong leadership skills, and uses coaching approach in adult teaching is looking for an opportunity to complement a team of growth mindset. Highly motivated, quick-to-adapt, organized, fiscally aware in resources and budgeting who is ready to join your team to learn and achieve.

EDUCATION

B.S. Environmental Health Science, Purdue University

May 2017

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Minerva Ventures (environmental consulting) – Project-based Intern, San Jose, CA May 2017-Present

- Creating social media content for Minerva website
- Editing printed marketing materials
- Participated with team to propose an 80-page climate action plan for city of Sunnyvale
- Provided quality control and assurance on proposal package for final approval as per City specifications
- Researched and organized information about 170 of the Bay Area companies' environmental initiatives
- Data-mined and provided research materials supporting outreach program

PepsiCo – Frito Lay EH&S Intern, Charlotte, NC

Summer 2016

- Helped initiate a sustainable path to zero landfill
- Researched resources and benchmarks for different waste stream improvement options
- Led cross team efforts to increase company awareness through Green Week initiative
 - Started with a $150 budget but fundraised additional corporate grants to build a $3k initiative and facilitated communications between local, regional and national levels sustainability
- Monitored Heat Stress Index (HSI) levels throughout the workplace and developed efficient method of communicating (HSI) levels
- Performed ergonomic job risk assessments

Breathe California, of the Bay Area (non-profit) – Intern, San Jose, CA

Summer 2015

- Prepared donated continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP), CPAP Auto, and BiPAP machines for low-income recipients, by performing quality control testing, parts replacement and maintenance
- Organized and lead the annual asthma camp for 40 children (ages 6-12) learning to control and live with their asthma
 - Planned and executed a week's worth of educational field trips, activities, and lesson plans

National Student Leadership Conference – Teaching Assistant, Seattle, WA

Summer 2014

- Mentored 9th through 11th grade students during health career and leadership conference
 - Guided team building exercises and individual leadership activities
 - Conference included lectures from Professionals in the health care industry (i.e. neurosurgeons, nurses, and public health professionals), hands on dissections, and field trips to local museums
-

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Silicon Valley Energy Summit Volunteer (June 2017)
 - Bret Harte Middle School – Cheerleading Coach to 6th, 7th, and 8th graders (June 2017-Present)
 - Alpha Phi International Fraternity (2013-2017) | Director of Finance (2015-2016), managed 300K budget
 - Global experience: Semester Abroad – Florence, Italy (Spring 2016); International Public Health Topics, United Kingdom (March 2015); Fresh water resource project in Nicaragua (July 2012)
 - Winterization to help local community of elderly and disabled to prepare for winter (2013)
 - Red Dress Gala for women's heart health (managed finances, overall fundraised $35k annually) (2013-2017)
-